AvSuper Seminars

Once again we are into a new lot of seminars for 2007/08.

We are delighted to provide this service to Brisbane.

Randall Yip, financial planner from Outlook Financial Solutions will be presenting.

Further, we will have John Hackett from AvSuper giving a brief presentation on super.

Both Randall and John will be available for individual appointments between seminar times, so if you would like a quick friendly chat, please make a booking. For a appointment with Randall, please phone 1300 657 872 or to chat with John, please phone on ext. 4722 or toll free on 1800 805 088.

Topic: A better way to manage your money

Managing debt and building a financial future

Primary audience: 25 - 37 age group

Overview: Do you know where your money is going? Increased financial commitments or just spending like there is no tomorrow?

This seminar will discuss key lessons to learn about effective money management and how to make your money work harder and smarter.

Bill is in his late 20s, with a wife, young kids, a mortgage he can't jump over, credit card debt coming out of his ears and a job that barely covers the essentials once the mortgage repayment is made each month. Max is the same age. With an expensively adorned rented apartment, a job that pays well, overseas holidays every other year and not much else except a top-of-the-range digital camera to show for all his money.

Both Bill and Max have a few key lessons to learn about effective money management. This is the seminar for them and for everyone who wants to get their money working harder and smarter.
