You can only start an income stream with existing superannuation money and a minimum balance of $20,000.

Since 1 July 2017, there is a Government imposed maximum you can hold in retirement phase income streams (across all funds you participate in).

Once commenced, you cannot add money to your income stream. Therefore, if you are rolling money in from a number of super funds, we suggest consolidating them first.

* If transferring your entire AvSuper accumulation account balance, any associated insurance cover will cease so you may wish to maintain an accumulation account.

If you do not make a choice your money will be invested in the Balanced Growth (77%) and Cash (23%) options and drawdown from the Cash option by default. Please complete the following table to make a choice:

Nomination of beneficiaries (Nomination is optional)

You can nominate your dependant* as a reversionary beneficiary who will continue to receive income stream payments if you die. A valid reversionary nomination is usually binding on the Trustee (subject to Government restrictions - see the PDS) but will not prevent your nominated reversionary beneficiary* from commuting (changing) the income stream to a lump sum. You can use our Income stream reversionary nomination form available from www.avsuper.com.au/member-forms/ to make or change your nomination later.

<input type="text"/>

Alternatively, you can make a non-binding nomination to help the Trustee decide who gets your money as a lump sum if you die. If you do not have any dependants (as defined in legislation and on our website)*, it will be paid to your legal personal representative. You can update your non-binding nomination at any time by completing a Nomination of beneficiaries form.

To make a legally binding nomination of beneficiaries, send us a witnessed, complete Nomination of beneficiaries form (available from our website). TOTAL 100%

* Dependants include your legal or defacto spouse, children (including stepchildren, ex-nuptial children and adopted children) and any other person with whom the Trustee considers you had an interdependency relationship at the time of your death.

Identification verification

We cannot open an income stream account or make superannuation payments (including income stream drawdowns) without confirming your identity. Please provide details on at least two of the following documents to enable us to verify your identity electronically.
